

Introduction

The specification for French in a “normal” year comprises of 4 units which together count towards the overall award of the French GCSE.

Unit 1 Speaking – this is a non-examination assessment of 10-12 minutes

Unit 2 Listening - this is a written examination of 50 minutes

Unit 3 Reading – this is a written examination of one hour 15 minutes

Unit 4 Writing – this is a written examination of one hour 30 minutes

There are “normally” three themes comprising of 9 sub-themes and 18 sub-sub-themes.

In June 2020 WJEC announced amendments to the course due to the Covid-19 pandemic. No units were removed for the 2021 examinations, however the following adaptations were announced:

Unit 1 Speaking: Task 2 (photo card discussion) was removed from assessment in 2021

The following sub-sub-themes were removed from the exam in 2021

- i) 1B Technology and social media
- ii) 7B Festivals and celebrations
- iii) 5A Local and regional features and characteristics of France and French--speaking countries
- iv) 8B Social issues
- v) 9A Post-16 study

In addition, the translation from English into French will not appear in the unit 4 writing paper in 2021.

This has been reflected in the content that has been taught to year 11 and is reflected in the assessment points shown below.

Sources of evidence for Centre Determined Grades in French

These sources are in line with the document "WJEC guidance on assessment and grading for summer 2021 alternative arrangements" and where assessments have been created by the department, they have been done in line with the "WJEC Creation Guide and information video". In addition, the Quality assessment framework states that if past papers are used to generate evidence of learning, they do not have to be completed in one session as an 'examination' but can be divided into sections to suit the programme of learning.
