Our Year 11 Digital Technology GCSE students took part in a Cybercrime Escape Room Workshop recently. North Wales Police & Crime Commissioner Andy Dunbobbin, Police Constable Dewi Owen and Detective Constable Roheryn Evans visited us to highlight the importance of cyber crime prevention and discuss career opportunities in this field. The students took part in an escape room activity where they had to crack various codes and crimes in order to complete the challenge. We are pleased to report that all students managed to solve the cybercrimes presented to them and 'escape' from the room in what Mr. Dunbobbin described as very impressive times.

The Arts, Culture and Wellbeing Faculty were delighted to hold auditions for our school production of High School Musical Jr last half term. This will be our first production since the pandemic and we were delighted to see over 70 pupils attend the auditions from both lower and upper school. Rehearsals are well underway and we look forward to seeing you at the performances on the 6th & 7th of February 2024.

SHOW RACISM THE RED CARD

The Speak Up, Speak Out group are working with Show Racism the Red Card on their Future Leaders Project.

The aims of the project include:

- To empower us to be actively anti-racist in our own communities;
- To create a self-sustaining network of anti-racism activists;
- To enable ongoing longer-term conversations about racism and anti-racism;
- To enable us and our classmates to feel confident in challenging racism within our own spaces;

Speak Up, Speak Out have delivered very successful presentations our ideas to the Senior Leadership Team in school and to Show Racism the Red Card representatives. Show Racism the Red Card have said that our representatives truly are future leaders and that their inspirational plans are some of the best they have ever heard. Show Racism the Red Card are very excited to be working with Hawarden High School.

More details of the projects we are currently working on will be released over the coming weeks. If you are interested in contributing to the work of the group, please speak with Mrs Williams.

Thank you to everyone who gave their time to support our Book Fair

Our fantastic student team made an impressive £413.88.... meaning that we now have the excitement of choosing £165.55 worth of books for our library
